ART LONG TERM PLAN

St. John the Baptist Catholic Primary School

Mission Statement

Together,
Through our words and actions, our work and play
We point towards Christ,
Each and every day.

Art Long Term Plan

		Autumn	Spring	Summer
Year R	Unit	All About Me - EAD		Space (Superheroes) - EAD
	CST	Talking about themselves in positive terms helps children build self-confidence and understand that they are unique and valuable. So, this art journey helps children see how special they are and respect the uniqueness of others!		This means everyone gets to join in and share their talents. When children experiment with different art techniques like sprinkling glitter, paint sponging, and creating moon pictures, they learn to work together and express their creativity.
	Hook	Andrew Goldsworthy/ Guiseppe Archimboldo		Van Gogh - Night Sky/ Roy Lichtenstein – “Super Heroes’
Year 1	Unit	Drawings of people		Hot and cold colours
	CST	Drawing a person in art helps us see how everyone is special and loved, just like how God loves each of us		Making a collage shows how we can bring different pieces together to make something beautiful, just like how God wants us to work together and help each other.
	Hook	Inference from images		Colour families
Year 2	Unit	Great Fire of London collage		Animal sculptors
	CST	Drawing the Great Fire of London helps us remember how people came together to help each other, just like how God wants us to care for our community		Making clay creatures teaches us to care for God's creation, just like how God wants us to take care of the world and everything in it.
	Hook	Blaze of glory video		Peter Rabbit/Beatrix Potter videos
Year 3	Unit	Stone age paintings		Iron age jewelry

	CST	By learning about Stone Age art, children can gain an appreciation for how ancient people used natural resources to create their artwork, and how they depicted their relationship with nature. This can foster a sense of responsibility and stewardship in young learners, encouraging them to care for the environment just as early humans did.	Iron Age jewelry often involved skilled craftsmanship and intricate designs, reflecting the dignity and creativity of the artisans who made them. By learning about this, children can appreciate the importance of respecting and valuing the work and skills of others.
	Hook	Stonehenge trip	Iron age trip
Year 4	Unit	Printing	Viking weaving
	CST	 This principle emphasizes the importance of community and the role each person plays in contributing to the common good. Hokusai's art brought people together and celebrated the beauty of everyday life. Relate this t6654o the principle of "Common Good" highlighting how everyone contributes to the well-being of their community.	This principle emphasizes the importance of unity and support within a community, recognizing that we are all interconnected and responsible for one another. Talk about the importance of working together and supporting each other, just as the Vikings did. Relate this to the principle of "Solidarity," emphasizing how unity and cooperation strengthen communities.
	Hook	Katsushika Hokusai	Viking weaving
Year 5	Unit	Tudor Portraits	Water/Monet
	CST	This principle emphasizes the inherent value and dignity of every individual, which is a central theme in Holbein's detailed and respectful portrayal of his subjects. Every person is valuable and deserves respect, regardless of their appearance or background. Relate this to the principle of "Life and Dignity of the Human Person.	This principle emphasizes the importance of respecting and preserving the environment, which is beautifully reflected in Monet's dedication to capturing the natural beauty of his garden and the water lilies. The beauty of nature but also instills a sense of responsibility towards environmental stewardship
	Hook	Hans Holbein/Ufton Court	Pond visit/river trip

Year 6	Unit	Tinga Tinga	Architects/Perspective
	CST	This principle emphasizes the importance of unity and mutual support within a community, recognizing that we are all interconnected and responsible for one another. Tinga Tinga art reflects the principle of solidarity by bringing people together and celebrating the beauty of their shared environment. Relate this to the importance of supporting and caring for one another in a community.	This principle emphasizes the importance of prioritizing the needs of the poor and vulnerable in society. Lowry's paintings depicted the lives of ordinary people in industrial settings. His work often highlighted the struggles and resilience of the working class.
	Hook	South African history topic	Lowry & Crier